Note to parents

This week our learning will focus on phonics. We will be working on practising reading and making words with the digraphs we already know and recognising the tricky words we have already covered as well as learning two new words.

Activity One

Reading

★ Sally and Percy ★

Find Sally and Percy's part of the map by using the arrows to scroll around different areas.

Click on the simple sounds game and use this to practise recognising digraphs and trigraphs.

Blending sounds

Then have a go at the blending sounds game to try to read the words. Some of the digraphs are a bit tricky so your child might need a little help.

Find Annie's map and click on the sound it out game. Have a go at sounding out the words.

For a really tricky challenge find Ernie's map and click on the sentences challenge. Try to make the sentences by putting the words in the right order.

Have a go at writing your very own sentence about something you really like. Here are some examples.

Which level will you choose?

A snail.

A snail has a shell.

A snail has a hard shell because it needs to protect its soft body. I like snails because they are slow and they have a shiny trail.
